

ARTIST

JESSICA RAY

WWW.IAMJESSICARAY.COM

Jessica Ray has been singing and performing since age 13. From opening for major acts like Dru Hill, to duets with Aaron Neville to working with super producer Blac Elvis, she is always finding new and innovative ways to push herself further and create experiences for her audiences all while staying true to who she is.

She graduated with her Masters in Music Performance and Journalism from University of Memphis. Jessica was signed to Made in Memphis Entertainment in 2017 where she released 7 recordings in 2020 (Including a Spanish record) along with a virtual live recording concert entitled "RAW" (Real Artist Working).

She comes from a musical family which includes Her dad, Ray Griffin who is a twice Grammy nominated bass player in Memphis, Tennessee with hits like Ring My Bell, Down Home Blues, Taxi, Disco Duck along with others. Also including Donald Brown, a jazz pianist who played with Winton Marcelas, Art Blakey, Mulgrew Miller and Kenny Garret to name a few.

Jessica has been involved in charity work for a few years creating and performing at benefit concerts for The Baddour Center and The Exceptional Foundation where proceeds went back to each cause. Both causes cater to mentally challenged Adults and adolescents. In between her own musical obligations, she choreographs performances for Stax Music Academy. Now she is independently working hard to continue the legacy of her father and of Memphis TN.

14K

SOCIAL MEDIA
FANS

(901) 276-5016

j@iamjessicaray.com

www.iamjessicaray.com